Friday Nov. 22, 1963 I was at work at Hardy's Shoe Store, 213, W. Jefferson. I had heard on the radio that the President had been shot. Also that a policeman had been shot in Oak Cliff. about 1:30 I saw a man standing in the lobby of the shoe store. This man was wearing a brown sport shirt. He also acted as if he was scared. about this time a police car came up the st., going west on Jefferson. When the Police Car reached garage it made a turn and went back East on Jefferson.

After the Police Car passed the man in the lobby walked on up Jefferson toward the Texas Theater.
I followed the man up the street and he went into the ~~Theater~~ Theater. I asked the girl in the box office

That she had been listening to the radio and did not remember I went into the show and asked <sup>Butch</sup> ~~Butch~~ the Concession man if he had seen the man come in. Butch said that he had been busy and did not notice.
Butch and I then checked the Exits to see if any of them had been opened.
~~The~~ The exits were all closed and did not appear to have been opened.

I then went back to the Box office and told Jackie to call the Police.
When the Police arrived the show was stopped and the lights were turned on.
A man in the middle section about 5 or 6 rows of seats from the back stood up when the lights were turned on.
an officer approached him and he hit the officer and knocked him back.
